

The Bosphorus UK

Tier 2 Covid Response

Your Safety is our Highest Concern

At The Bosphorus UK, we want to ensure that every single one of our guests feels able to relax in our restaurant, knowing that their safety has been taken care of.

We have taken time to ensure all Government Guidelines have been followed and are keeping a close eye on any changes that may be announced.

We ask you to please work with us and respect the rules we have put in place.

Thank you again for your patience during these times, we can't wait to keep welcoming you back to Bosphorus.

In our Restaurant

- We ask for prior booking whenever possible, to ensure a smooth and safe service for everyone
- Guests will need to leave their name and contact number for Track and Trace
- If we are informed of any member of staff or guest receiving a positive test, anyone who may have come into close contact will be informed so they can self isolate as advised by the Government
- You may only sit with members of your household inside the restaurant. You may sit with people from another house hold outside on our heated terrace
- Tables of over 6 guests will not be allowed anywhere in the venue

In our Restaurant

- Hand Sanitizer can be found at the entrance, as well as outside washrooms and on each table
- Masks are to be worn by all staff and guests whilst walking around the restaurant
- Tables will be spread out to keep in line with social distancing guidelines
- Menus will not be used on tables, you will find a QR code at each table to upload the menu onto your mobile phone
- Final orders will be called at 9pm

For our Staff

- Staff will be washing their hands regularly as needed, at a minimum once every 30 minutes
- Masks will be worn at all times
- Staff will have their temperatures checked regularly and will be told to self isolate and have a test if they show any symptoms
- All our staff are fully trained on the current Covid guidelines and will be on hand to help you if you have any concerns

In the case of changes to Government Restrictions

The team at The Bosphorus UK want to ensure the safety of all our staff and customers and we understand the frustration around everchanging rules.

We will ensure that wherever possible, we will keep you updated on any changes to our service.

If you have a booking with us, we will be in touch with you as soon as possible if amendments or cancelations are necessary and we ask that you are patient with us through that process.
